

Police Interview Statement

Written, signed and then read at the beginning of the recording.

STATEMENT

I <name>, make the following declaration as proof of my will In Propria Persona, as my natural person; and as principal of the person named “<name>”; and not as an agent or as a beneficial holder or pro se.

On <date>, I was (arrested/detained against my will) and brought to (name of police station) to be interviewed by police.

Before commencing, I asked the interviewing police if they would be conducting the interview according to the law and in good faith and honesty, without any deception. They answered (yes/no). As a result, I asked the interviewing police if they would first disclose to me all the claimed evidence they have and wish to discuss; and then provide me reasonable time to remember, so that I could answer honestly without any error.

Because the interviewing police are not prepared at this time to disclose to me the substance of their claim and so allow me to recall accurately the events surrounding such claims, any further answers to questions at this time would be both unfair and prejudicial against me, as I am presently prevented by these actions from providing consistent and accurate answers. Therefore, I shall be answering “no comment” to any and all further questions and I reject completely any claimed agreement, or contract, or submission by understanding to the police or courts or to any fees, or charges or being further detained at this time.
